CESH intends to publish the "Who's who" of all European sport historians, therefore you are invited to send us your curriculum together with publications, specializations, issues of your present researches and, of course, your photograph, address, fax number, e-mail and whatever else could be useful to locate you. CESH wants to offer a reference point for researchers in the Sport History field. Information are to be sent to President Arnd Krüger or to Prof. Angela Teja.

One more scholarship for young participants

The Panathlon International VII District of Rome, whose president is Mr. Alessandro Nati, informed us, through out famous and dear Prof. Fernando Varese, who is the person responsible for the Culture Commission, that a scholarship amounting to Lit. 500,000 would be offered to a young Seminar participant to honour the memory of a well-deserved personality of the Italian sports and physical education world: Giovanni Romagna. Young participants will have one more chance to have their work rewarded.

Many thanks to Panathlon of Rome!

Hurry up!

Some participants have not yet sent the registration form yet, so hurry up!

Don't forget to specify your t-shirt size (for the souvenir t-shirt) and indicate your date of birth if you want to participate in the scholarship awards.

Internet, for ever!

Interesting news for historians who "navigate" on the Internet. Richard Cox provides new information on the last number of ISHPES-Bulletin (no.11/July 1996, pp. 17-18). The British Society of Sports History set up a number of services on the Internet at the disposal of sport historians; it also supports the ISHPES-Bulletin Board.

If you have an e-mail account you can subscribe free of charge to BritishSportHist: this will allow you to post letters of enquiry, notices of events and send information to all the members subscribing to the list. As a subscriber you will receive copies of all messages posted to the list. The list is restricted to subscribers and is managed by Richard Cox. To subscribe to BritSportHist send an e-mail to:

majordomo@mcc.ac.uk

with the message:

subscribe britsporthist

and indicate your name. Those accepted to the list will be given a pass word and all the necessary instructions.

The address to post message to the list is:

britsporthist@umist.ac.uk

This service is meant to be complimentary to that one offered by the University of Windsor-Ontario, of which we spoke about in the last issue of our Newsletter.

The BSSH World Wide Web Home Page provides information and services to sports historians: you only have to connect to the home page and to click on the topic you are interested in. You can range over a great number of fields: bibliography, electronic conferences, specialized reviews, Sports Museums, Research Institutes, publication catalogues and so on...

At the moment the service is restricted to the BSSH subscribers.

The e-mail of the ISHPES-Bulletin Board is:

The last issue of the Panathlon International Revue (a.XLIII, no. 3 May/June 1996) provides a very interesting insert : "Speciale Musei per lo Sport" which gives notice of the opening of the Sports Library and the Sports Museum founded in Genoa by the "Amici Museo dello Sport" Association whose lively inspirers are Claudio Bertieri and Riccardo Grozio. The insert also deals with literature, congresses, historians' associations, sports museums and whatever else regarding the sports culture since sport is "an active subject of historical and cultural productions" - as Sergio Giuntini states in his opening article.
