We remind everyone that the program will be very concentrated and that everyone needs to respect the timetable for every speech (20 min plus ten minutes for discussion). As everyone knows we have no simultaneous translation, therefore presentations can be in any European language but with a short summery in either English or French.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

During the work of Congress, the Plenary Assenmbly will have a portion of the Thursday 26 september 2002 and hour 19. Remembering the importance of the meeting for the existence of our commitee and for the future which should be closer to the interests of our members, we would like to aknowledge and thank our members. Membership fees are due which currently remain the same at 25 euro for adults and 20 euro's for students.

SUMMERY

The Sports Museum of Warsaw is celebrating fifty years of it's life in October of this year and is organizing an event. This event is titled "Memory and Beauty" – role of sport museums in formation of historical-esthetic conciseness of local and global societies". The director of this Museum, Iwona Gryś, is an enthusiastic member. We have included her e-mail: muzsport@l.pl tel. Fax (48 22)8250407.
